

The Central Illinois Reading Council presents:

Webinar, Wisdom, and Wine:

March 7, 2018

Janet Allen

Unlocking Opportunities by Deciding not to "Do It All"

In this webinar, Janet will share how she learned to “stand on the shoulders of giants” to help refine her thinking and practice to meet the needs of students. She will discuss the importance of choosing how to balance literacy so we can decide not to do it all in order to do what really matters—for us and our students.

3sixteen Wine Bar, Chatham

Registration 6:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Webinar & Conversation -7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

A Members Only Event! 20 spaces available (pre-registration required)

Gift Bags and Door Prizes!

1.5 Hours PD Provided to Member Attendees!

Contact/RSVP to Terri Colyer: tcolyer@auburn.k12.il.us OR 217-414-4071

Webinar will be displayed on a communal screen in the private side room. Wifi available.

Food and drinks are available for purchase.

Janet Allen is known for her Professional Books and a frequent speaker at IRC Conference:

