

The College of Education, Northern Illinois University
Announces:

The Pamela J. Farris Literacy Education Fund at Northern Illinois University

For over a quarter of a century, Dr. Pamela J. Farris has been a cornerstone of the language arts program at Northern Illinois University. As a distinguished teaching professor, Dr. Farris has been known for her dynamic teaching and caring mentoring of graduate students and undergraduate teacher candidates alike. Dr. Farris is also faculty advisor to the Northern Illinois Reading Council.

You are invited to promote the innovative teaching of courses in language arts, children's literature, and reading pedagogy by contributing to the Pamela J. Farris Literacy Education Fund. Your contribution will not only honor Dr. Farris at the time of her retirement, but will also support future generations of literacy educators enrolled at Northern Illinois University. Gifts to this newly established fund are tax deductible as allowed by law. Please complete the following form and submit it with your contribution.
