

Fall Author Visit

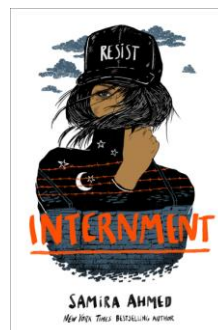

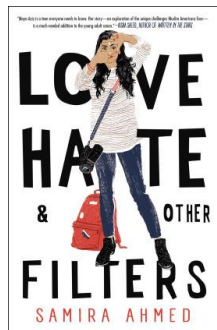

Samira Ahmed

Tuesday September 18, 2018

Location: University Dining Room

- ◆welcome reception and WCRC meeting at 5:10◆
- ◆author presentation at 5:45/signing at 7:00◆

Book: Love Hate & Other Filters will be available for purchase from Follett
CASH, CHECK, OR CREDIT CARDS ACCEPTED

Samira Ahmed was a high school English teacher in both the suburbs of Chicago and the New York City Public Schools. Her book, Love, Hate, & Other Filters, is the first Muslim author work of realistic fiction that has ever appeared on the NY Times Bestseller list.

The coming-of-age story was inspired by her own encounters with racism as a child and an alarming rise in hate crimes throughout the US.

Register in advance: <https://goo.gl/forms/OJZcXvyySrcJ8Vqu1> | <https://samiraahmed.com/>

The annual author visit is co-sponsored by the Lewis University College of Education and Will County Reading Council